

Anthropology: The Doctrine of Humanity

First Baptist Church Dandridge – Fall 2020

Dr. Justin H. Terrell

Jterrell@fbcddt.org

Description

In this study, we will seek to gain a greater biblical and theological understanding of humanity, particularly what it means to be created human and the will of God for human life. This study will establish a biblical worldview for humanity and reveal the need for salvation through Christ. Ultimately, we will answer the question posed in Psalm 8:4, “What is man that you are mindful of him?”

Topics

- Creation and Human Existence
- Adam as a Historical Person
- The Image of God (Imago Dei)
- The Debate Concerning Body, Soul, and Spirit
- Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Culture
- Marriage and Celibacy
- Work, Community Life, and Human Government
- Sin, Fallen Nature, and Redemption
